

Academic Programs.

1. Biblical Archaeology #320.

Why Study Biblical Archaeology?.

Discover the latest archaeological findings that affirm the Bible's authenticity. Dive into Biblical interpretation and apologetics, with opportunities for on-site excavations. Engage with both Old and New Testament archaeology to enrich your understanding of biblical history.

2. Christian Education 1 #201.

Why Study Christian Education?.

Gain an introductory overview of Christian education, exploring foundational principles and methodologies within this vital field.

3. Christian Education II #202.

Why Study Christian Education II?.

Examine various educational theories and their practical applications in teaching environments. Develop skills in lesson planning and gain hands-on experience in teaching.

4. Church Government #309.

Why Study Church Government?.

Explore the significance of the church's Articles of Faith and Constitutions. This course addresses common misconceptions, providing a Biblical framework for understanding church governance.

5. Church History #302.

Why Study Church History?.

This lecture series covers historical development from 586 BCE through the early church period, including key documents such as the Theodosian Code and the Apostles' Creed.

6. Counseling Perspectives for Recovery Ministry #709.

Why Study Counseling Perspectives for Recovery Ministry?.

Integrating Biblical truths with psychological insights to tackle issues in Pastoral and Christian Counseling, focusing on applying Biblical understanding to contemporary challenges.

7. Davidic Kingdom #129.

Why Study the Davidic Kingdom?

Find out the significance and fulfillment in Jesus Christ and its implications for the Davidic Kingdom.

8. Dispensations #127.

Why Study Dispensation?.

Investigate dispensational theology, exploring various historical periods to enhance your ability to interpret the scriptures accurately.

9. Eschatology (End Time) #318.

Why Study Eschatology?.

Engage in a prophetic study of eschatology, focusing on the end-time prophecies of Daniel and John to understand future events and doctrines.

10. Evangelism #707.

Why Study Evangelism?.

Equip yourself with strategies for personal and group evangelism. Emphasizing outreach efforts in local communities and cities.

11. Family Living#130.

Why Study Family Living?.

Get an understanding of God's blueprint for family life, examine the roles of husbands, wives, and children, and apply Biblical principles to fortify family bonds.

12. Genesis 1#305.

Why Study Genesis?.

Conduct an exegetical study of Genesis, incorporating historical, cultural, and archaeological perspectives, with potential insights from other Pentateuch books.

13. God's Financial Concepts #120.

Why Study God's Financial Concept?.

Explore Biblical economic principles as they apply to individuals, churches, and society at large.

14. The Gospel #128.

Why Study The Gospels?.

Analyze Jesus Christ's life through the Synoptic Gospels and explore the unique portrayal found in the fourth Gospel.

15. Hebrew 1#316.

Why Study Hebrew?.

Begin learning Old Testament Hebrew grammar, syntax, and vocabulary alongside basic polite expressions.

16. Hermeneutics#401.

Why Study Hermeneutics?.

Study Biblical interpretation principles with a focus on the Holy Spirit's role in understanding scriptures.

17. Introduction to Psychology and Counseling #218.

Why Study Psychology & Counseling?.

Explore and understand foundational psychology concepts and their application to counselling within a scriptural framework for effective ministry.

18. Jewish Studies 1 #312.

Why Study Jewish Studies?.

Examine the relationship between Gentile Christians and Israel, focusing on fulfilling Biblical responsibilities through practical engagement.

19. Jewish Studies II # 313.

Why Study Jewish Studies II ?.

Investigate Judaism as a religious, ethical, and social system while considering its historical impact and future peace prospects.

20. Jewish Studies III #314.

Why Study Jewish Studies III?.

Continue exploring the interactions between Gentile Christians and Judaism, building on previous studies.

21. Life of Christ #117.

Why Study the Life of Christ?.

Study the Gospel's background alongside Jesus Christ's life, ministry, death, and resurrection.

22. Major Prophets#211.

Why Study The Major Prophets?.

Examine prophecies concerning Christ, Israel's captivity, and the rise and fall of the Gentiles.

23. Ministerial Ethics 1#306.

Why Study Ministerial Ethics?.

Focus on effective communication in ministry by emphasizing proper grammar usage.

24. Ministerial Ethics II#360.

Why Study Ministerial Ethics II?.

Explore Biblical guidelines for ethical ministry practices, including cultural awareness and qualifications for various ministry roles.

25. Ministry of Counselling#712.

Why Study Ministry of Counseling?.

Address counselling approaches for pre-marriage, marriage, and troubled marital relationships.

26. Minor Prophets #212.

Why Study The Minor Prophets?.

Study the twelve Minor Prophets and their messages within their social contexts and contemporary applications.

27. Monotheism #322.

Why Study Monotheism?.

Investigate the doctrine of God in the Old Testament. Study and Hebrew grammar while addressing misconceptions about the Godhead.

28. Music Fundamentals #501.

Why Study Music Fundamentals?.

Introduction to basic music theory concepts: notes, scales, key signatures, and rhythm techniques.

29. New Testament Survey #209.

Why Study New Testament Survey?.

Survey the New Testament within its historical and cultural contexts from Matthew to Revelation.

30. Parliamentary law #333.

Why Study Parliamentary Law?.

Learn parliamentary procedures based on Robert's Rules of Order through practical exercises such as mock meetings.

31. Pentateuch#321.

Why Study the Pentateuch?.

Study Moses' five books with a focus on key elements, the Tabernacle plan, and Jewish feasts, as part of the Gospel of the Old Testament.

32. Principles of Doctrine# 301.

Why Study Principles of Doctrine?.

Discuss and study the importance of God's Word alongside Apostolic Doctrine, covering Biblical sins and teachings on law and Sabbath observance.

33. Poetic Books #118.

Why Study the Poetic Books?.

Explore themes of suffering, human life, and love within Psalms, Proverbs, and Job's Poetic Books.

34. Romans #126.

Why Study Romans?.

Dive into Romans' doctrinal truths concerning sin, salvation, sanctification, and sovereignty.

35. Sociology #701.

Why Study Sociology?.

Unfold the understanding of self-awareness and personal growth, and their importance for spiritual development within the social context.

36. Sunday School Administration #208.

Why Study Sunday School Admin?.

Learn effective Sunday School program management strategies while addressing common challenges.

37. Speech 1 #307.

Why Study Speech?.

Focus on speech preparation techniques, including composition delivery methods, alongside audience analysis tools and rhetorical devices for motivational purposes among groups.

38. Speech II #361.

Why Study Speech II?.

Get an understanding of voice science, including anatomy and physiology, to improve voice projection, protection, and effective speaking.

39. Techniques Counseling #315.

Why Study Techniques Counseling?.

Equip yourself with the knowledge needed to identify root causes and problems while counseling.